

Watch With a Purpose!

How to use: Cut out the watches, and tape or glue the end of the strip around students' wrists. Encourage students to look at their watch during viewing to remember the purpose for watching the video. Have students share their wrist watches with their families to continue conversations about the video at home.

Find more activities at pbslearningmedia.org